

Curriculum Vitae

Hayley Love

230 Sandels Building
Florida State University
Tallahassee, FL 32306
E-mail: hl16d@my.fsu.edu

Education

Florida State University, Tallahassee, Florida.

Ph.D. in Human Development and Family Science
2016 – Present (expected 2020)

Illinois State University, Normal, Illinois.

M.S. in Psychology: Developmental Sequence
2014 – 2016

Northern Illinois University, DeKalb, Illinois.

B.S. in Psychology, minor in Sociology
2012 – 2014

North Central College, Naperville, Illinois.

Major in Psychology
2010 – 2012

Presentations

Love, H., & Rivadeneyra, R. (2016, April). A Multidimensional Approach to Measuring the Phenomenon of Helicopter Parenting. Poster presented at the Annual ISU Research Symposium, Normal, IL.

Love, H., & Gerardy, H. (2014, April). Parent-Child Conflict about Peers and Adolescents' Social Adjustment. Poster presented at the Annual NIU Psychology Research Conference, DeKalb, IL.

Research Experience

Independent Study: EdPsych Modules (3rd Edition)

Supervisors: Dr. Marla Reese-Weber and Dr. Cheryl Durwin
Illinois State University, 2015 – 2016

Duties included conducting literature reviews on various Educational Psychology topics such as family and peer contexts, cognitive development, classroom management and assessment procedures.

Master's Thesis: A New Approach to Measuring Helicopter Parenting: The Multidimensional Helicopter Parenting Scale

Chair: Dr. Rocio Rivadeneyra

Illinois State University, 2014 – 2016

Research Assistantship: Parental Management of Peer Relationships: An Observational Study

Supervisor: Dr. Nina Mounts

Northern Illinois University, 2013 – 2014

Duties included material and protocol preparation before study began, collecting, managing, and analyzing data, learning and exercising coding procedures.

Teaching Experience

Teaching Assistantship, Florida State University, 2016

FAD 2230: Family Relationships: A Life Span Development Approach

Supervisor: Dr. Nari Jeter

Responsible for grading various homework assignments throughout the semester for a portion of the students.

Teaching Assistantship, Illinois State University, 2014 – 2016

PSY 231: Research Methods in Psychology (Lab Instructor)

Supervisor: Dr. Thomas Critchfield

Duties included running weekly lab meetings for two sections of the course throughout the semester.

Work Experience

Work For Hire Contract, SAGE Publications Inc., 2016

EdPsych Modules: Digital Resources

Supervisor: Allison Hughes

Completed a series of digital resources for the new edition of EdPsych Modules.

Skills Summary

SPSS, Statistical Analysis

R (programming)

Liseral

Select Survey

Data Entry

Coding Qualitative Data

Accurately Conveying Information Through Developed Presentations
Working in a Lab Setting
Systematically Running and Recording Experimental Data
Working with Data to Form Data Analysis Plans
Interviewing as a Form to Collect Data
General Knowledge of Research
 Writing Research Summaries
 Developing Research Proposals
 Drafting and Writing Lab Reports

Honors and Awards

Non-Duty Stipend, Florida State University, 2016
(Monetary Award based on merit)

Teaching Assistantship, Florida State University, 2016
(Full Tuition Waiver and Stipend)

Teaching Assistantship, Illinois State University, 2014 – 2016
(Full Tuition Waiver and Stipend)

Magna Cum Laude, Northern Illinois University, 2014

Undergraduate Research Assistantship, Northern Illinois University, 2014
(Paid Assistantship)

Psi Chi National Honor Society, Member, 2014

Transfer Student Housing Scholarship, Northern Illinois University, 2012 – 2013